Urgent One Question Survey

RE: 2013-14 Program Planning Survey

Our chapter is considering a Fall "road trip" to see and hear the E. M. Skinner pipe organ at Stambaugh Auditorium in Youngstown. Several other area AGO chapters have made a similar tour and have reported that the organ and the performers are excellent and that the event was enjoyable and a boost in community for their members. Our chapter would provide the bus, members would pay for their meal and a ticket for the November concert. Guests would be welcome for a $10. fee toward the bus expense. We will choose either the October or November concert day depending on the majority of responses. Information about the organ and the auditorium are on this link:

<http://www.stambaughauditorium.com/About/EMSkinnerPipeOrgan.aspx>

We need feedback on your interest in either of the programs listed below. Please respond to the answers by putting an X next to your choice and forwarding this message with your response to subdean@agocleveland.org by Friday, April 26th. (Note: Don't click the "reply" button on your mail handler; choose "Forward"). Thank you for your help with program planning for our chapter!

1. I probably would plan to attend the October concert, 10/26, 2 PM, Todd Wilson
2. I probably would plan to attend the November concert, 11/17, 4PM Nathan Laube
3. I probably would not attend either concert.

Please add a brief comment about the proposal if you wish -

Sat. Oct. 26 2 pm concert	Bus tour Approx. 10 am - 5 pm	Free accompanied movie, Phantom of the Opera Modest lunch cost	Stambaugh Aud. Youngstown, OH	Todd Wilson, organist
Sun. Nov. 17 4 pm concert	Bus tour Approx. 2 - 8 pm	Organ recital - $10. Modest dinner cost	Stambaugh Aud. Youngstown, OH	Nathan Laube, organist
